

Romarine Roman Aleksandrowicz Seafarers Privacy Notice

Introduction

The General Data Protection Regulation (GPDR) (EU) 2016/679 is a regulation in European law on data protection and privacy for all individuals within European Union. It also addresses the export of personal data outside the EU. The GPDR aims to give control to citizens and residents over their personal data and simplify the regulatory environment for international business by unifying the regulation within European Union.

Romarine Roman Aleksandrowicz will implement the GPDR from 25 May 2018.

The GPDR applies to 'personal data' meaning any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly identified in particular by reference to an identifier.

This definition provides for a wide range of personal identifiers to constitute personal data, including name, identification number, location data, reflecting changes in technology the way organizations collect information about people.

The GPDR applies to both automated personal data and to manual filing systems where personal data are accessible according to specific criteria.

Romarine Roman Aleksandrowicz is committed to maintain the trust and confidence- in particular, we want you to know that our Agency does not sell, rent or trade email lists or contact information with other companies and businesses for marketing purposes.

Our general Privacy Policy is available in our office (Romarine Roman Aleksandrowicz Barlickiego 36 street, 72600 Świnoujście/Poland).

The Privacy Notice provides detailed information on when and why we collect your personal information, how we use it, the limited conditions under which we may disclose it to others and how we keep it secure.
